

Updates:

For the 2010-2011 school year, students at New River Middle School will have a new type of schedule. Students will have a total of six classes, which they will attend daily.

- Students will receive Course Selection Cards Monday, March 15, 2010. It is imperative for students to return these. Course Selection Cards are due back Friday, March 19, 2010.
- Students will have academic class teachers sign off the course selections.
- Elective classes may require teacher recommendation and a signature must be present for these.
- Students must select 3 electives. Electives choices are NOT guaranteed, but efforts will be made to accommodate students. Academic classes have priority in students' schedule.
- If Course Selection Cards are not turned in or are incomplete, courses will be selected for students.
- This change in schedule will primarily impact student choices of elective classes.

There will be an information Scheduling
Meeting Wednesday, March 17 @ 6:00pm
